Biography

Olsi Vrapı is the managing partner of the firm and is based in the Albuquerque office. Mr. Vrapı represents individuals, families, and businesses in family and business visa petitions, green card applications, naturalization and citizenship, removal of conditions and green card renewals, H-1B visas, PERM applications, J-1 Conrad Physician Waivers, and other immigration matters. He also takes the government to federal court over delays and improper decisions. Mr. Vrapı is an Adjunct Professor at the University of New Mexico School of Law. Mr. Vrapı is fluent in Spanish, Albanian, proficient in Italian, and has passable knowledge of French.

Mr. Vrapı graduated Magna Cum Laude from the University of New Mexico with a degree in Political Science and Spanish in 2003. He graduated Cum Laude from the University of New Mexico School of Law in December 2006. Mr. Vrapı started working in the field of immigration law in 2003, and he has been a licensed lawyer since 2007. Mr. Vrapı is the recipient of national awards and the past chair of the TX, NM, and OK Chapter of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA). He is a highly sought-after speaker at conferences and other immigration law events. For more of Mr. Vrapı's experience, publications, and accomplishments see his LinkedIn profile.

Mr. Vrapı is an immigrant himself who came to the United States in 1999 as a student from Albania. At that time, the biggest difficulty in his life was the feeling of being stuck and not being able to dream about and plan his future without permanent status. He understands that many immigrants like himself have similar issues and decided to dedicate his career to breaking those immigration barriers so immigrants can dream big and work hard to make those dreams a reality, which in turn makes our communities more vibrant.
